

Vince Cifelli

Lambertville, NJ

Funding for internal connections should be given higher priority so that items such as switches, routers, firewall, wireless access points and wireless controllers, mobile device mgmt systems and BYOD security can be implemented at the necessary levels as they are all vital to the successful use of both school issued and end-user owned devices in schools.